

REMEMBRANCE DAY
Twenty-fifth Sunday after Pentecost
November 11, 2018

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Matthew 5.3

Collect

Eternal God, who caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning, grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Background to Today's Readings: (for preparation before the service or study at home)
Ruth 3:1-5; 4:13-17 Naomi has lost her husband and sons, but is blessed by the love and support of her widowed daughter in law Ruth. Naomi is resourceful in arranging the marriage of Ruth to her wealthy kinsman, Boaz; and Ruth the Moabite, becomes the great-grandmother to that greatest of Israelite kings, David.
Psalms 127 Children are a heritage from the LORD.
Hebrews 9:24-28 the letter to the Hebrews describes Christ as a high priest who offers himself as a sacrifice for our sin. Christ does not die again and again each year. He died once, is alive with God, and will reveal himself on the last day.
Mark 12:38-44 after engaging in a series of public arguments with religious leaders in the temple, Jesus contrasts the proud and oppressive ways of those leaders with the sacrificial humility and poverty of the widow.

READINGS FOR REMEMBRANCE DAY
Twenty –Fifth Sunday after Pentecost
November 11, 2018

A Reading from the book of Ruth

Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, “My daughter, I need to seek some security for you, so that it may be well with you. Now here is our kinsman Boaz, with whose young women you have been working. See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor. Now wash and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. When he lies down, observe the place where he lies; then, go and uncover his feet and lie down; and he will tell you what to do.” She said to her, “All that you tell me I will do.”

So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. When they came together, the Lord made her conceive, and she bore a son. Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed be the Lord, who has not left you this day without next-of-kin; and may his name be renowned in Israel! He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is more to you than seven sons, has borne him.” Then Naomi took the child and laid him in her bosom, and became his nurse. The women of the neighborhood gave him a name, saying, “A son has been born to Naomi.” They named him Obed; he became the father of Jesse, the father of David.

Ruth 3:1-5, 4:13-17

Response: Thanks be to God

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

Response: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

As he taught, he said, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows’ houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.”

He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on.”

Mark 12:38-44

Response: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

*They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.*

LEST WE | FORGET

A COVENTRY PRAYER

Father Forgive

That we have fallen so far short of your ideal for us.

Father Forgive

That we have chosen to ridicule each other rather than to support

Father Forgive

That we seek to hurt each other rather than to heal and cherish

Father Forgive

That we have forgotten and all too easily the meaning of your love in our lives and

Father Forgive

That we have heard you not each and every time you called and urged us to come home

All that we have done in this way and treat us with the compassion that only you can extend

We are unworthy, we deserve nothing but you are listening, waiting.... and so, we ask you to renew our hearts with a deep and abiding sincerity and as you listen

Father Forgive

These lines were written following a visit to Coventry, to attend a conference of The Community of the Cross of Nails, and whilst walking around the ruins of the old cathedral.

Memorial Day

On this day our memories may be so painful that we cannot live with them. Yet we cannot, we dare not live without them. Let us pray that we may never forget, but always remember before God that in his sight war is evil and that, to all who experience it, war is hell.

Silence

For leaders who send the young to war, that their judgement be sound and their motives be pure,
Lord in your mercy,

Hear our prayer

For soldiers who have lay down their lives for others and for those who continue to do so, that the love which inspires their sacrifice may be fulfilled in the love of Christ,
Lord in your mercy,

Hear our prayer

For soldiers who have been maimed or hospitalized by war, that our love for them may make their scars of no consequence and make their brutality yield to the tenderness of returning love, Lord in your mercy,

Hear our prayer

For those who have been left behind, that they may live on the strength of the love that they knew,
Lord in your mery,

Hear our prayer

For those who suffer most from war, that the homeless, the orphaned, the hungry, and innocent may help us turn from warlike ways to accept God's gift of peace, Lord in your mercy,

Hear our prayer

Silence

Father, help us never to forget that war is evil and war is hell.

Help us to honor its dead and to pray for its victims who live on, through him who for our sakes laid down his life, even Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen
